OUR SUGGESTED TIMETABLE FOR THE DAY

2.30pm arrival of bride and groom who will be greeted by our team, guests will already be seated in your chosen location.

3.00pm arrival drinks are served, whilst photographer arranges all your requirements inside and out in the garden.

3.30pm invite guests through to the dining room, passing through your receiving line, your guests will be seated for the meal and then you will be announced in to the room as the new Mr. and Mrs.

4.00pm the formal cutting of the cake, and photograph opportunity for your guests.

4.30pm following the cake cutting, toast drinks will be poured and we start with the speeches announced in turn by master of ceremonies.

5.00pm the meal is served accompanied by your chosen wines.

6.45pm meal finished, a chance for the bride and groom to break away to relax and freshen up before the evening guests arrive.

Your evening entertainers will have a chance to set up and for our staff to reorganise the room if necessary, for the evening's events.

7.45pm evening guests arrive, and welcomed by you, the new couple and by the day guests for drinks in the bar.

8.30pm Bride and Groom take to the floor for the first dance, signalling the start of the evening's celebrations.

9.30pm the evening's buffet is served, normally during the band's break.

CONDITIONS OF BOOKING

- 1 The hotel can only consider a reservation as definite when a letter of confirmation of that reservation has been received by the hotel with the appropriate deposit.
- 2 A minimum number for catering in the ballroom will be 50. For a party of less than 50 a room hire charge may be levied at his discretion of the management.
- 3 In the event of a booking being cancelled the hotel will minimize the loss by retaining the deposit as a cancellation fee.
- 4 Full payments are expected at least Two Week before wedding date and any refund or balance due will be settled after the wedding reception.
- 5 Wedding receptions on Sunday to Thursday will enjoy a 10% discount on the enclosed food prices.
- 6 Monthly payment available if pre-arranged with the management.
